Escaped Asylum Inmate Heat Victim.

The body of Wm. Hamilton, who escaped from the Kentucky Eastern Asylum at Lexington, Sunday afternoon was found on the right-of-way of the Louisville and Nashville railroad about five miles of Paris at 6:30 o'clock.

It was evident that life had been extinct for several hours and the body had almost reached a state of decomposition.

The discovery of the body was made by a track walker yesterday morning about one mile from Hutchison station, and the matter was immediately reported to Coroner Rudolph Davis, who went to the scene immediately and had the body removed to the undertaker establishment of Mr. Geo. W. Davis. For a time it was thought the body was that of James A. Stout, of Danville. As the only thing found that would lead to his identification, was a copy of a Louisville newspaper, addressed to "Jas. A. Stout, Eastern Kentucky Asylum, Lexington Ky." was found in his pocket, together with a small ball of yarn and several pieces of leather. Later developments, however, disclosed the fact that the body was not that of Stout.

It is supposed Hamilton, whose home is in Poplar Plains, Fleming county, effected his escape from the asylum some time Sunday morning. Coroner Davis, in his investigation, learned that about noon Sunday the man was seen walking along the track in the direction of Paris, by a foreman of a section crew at Hutchison, who said the man gave slight evidence of being ill, but as he did not ask for assistance and seemed disinclined to converse with the foreman, no further attention was paid him.

The opinion is that after making his escape from the asylum, Hamilton started in the direction of his home. When almost overcome by the extreme heat he made his way along the side of the track until he reached the spot where his body was found.

Superintendent Dr. C. A. Nevitt, of the asylum, accompanied by H. W. Satterwhite, an attendant, came to Paris at four o'clock yesterday afternoon and identified the body as being that of Hamilton. Coroner Davis immediately communicated with Michael Hamilton, a brother of the dead man, in Fleming county, and he will arrive here this morning to take charge of the remains and remove them to his home for burial. Hamilton had been an inmate of the asylum since the first of February. He is survived by his wife and several children.

After conducting an investigation yesterday morning Coroner Davis decided that the man died of sunstroke.

First National Sells Property.

Mr. R. K. McCarney has purchased from the First National Bank of this city, the two brick buildings on Broadway, in the rear of the Agricultural Bank Building. The purchase was made at a private price. Recently the bank officials bought the property from Mrs. Elizabeth C. Rogers, of Lexington, and Mrs. Carrie Hanson, of Winchester. At that time it was the intention of the purchasers to remodel and enlarge their present place of business, but since they purchased the property at the corner of Main and Fourth streets known as the Price Corner and decided to dispose of their property on Broadway.

Six of the yearlings were purchased by Mr. Turney from John J. McCafferty and the other four were bred by Mr. Turney on his farm in this county.

Three Held On Robbery Charge.

John Hunter, of Owlsley county, Wm. Young, of Lafayette Tenn. and Robt. Smith, of Crab Orchard, Ky., all white, are held at the county jail on a charge of robbing a boy whose name is unknown. The alleged robbery took place last night shortly after nine o'clock beneath the railroad bridge on East Main street and only a short distance from the jail.

The boy who is thought was robbed is Hungarian and when found was in a drunken stupor. It is thought he was taken to the spot where he was found and relieved of what money he had in his possession. The capture of the men was effected by Jailer Joe Farris who hearing the cries of the boy went to investigate and intercepted the men as they were about to enter the foot bridge. One of the four men escaped by running through the bridge an was fire upon by Jailer Farris. He is said to be a white man by the name of Silas Johnson and the police are making a search for him.

All of those in custody declare that they are innocent of the charge preferred against them, and Young, who claims to be a fireman, claims he was enroute to the depot to take the late train for his home, when taken into custody. He had in his possession a railroad pass. Hunter and Smith are employed with a construction gang.

The victim of the alleged robbers was taken to the jail where he was locked up for the night. The men held in jail, stated the name of the boy was unknown to them.

1,100 Prisoners Paroled.

During the past twelve years the State Prison Commission has paroled 1,100 convicts nearly the entire population of the Frankfort penitentiary and nearly twice the population of the Eddyville penitentiary.

The first Prison Commission was created in 1900 and paroled 207 convicts before the Prison Commission comprising Eli Brown, Harvey McCutcheon and Finley Fogg went into office March 1, 1904.

Since that time 893 convicts have been paroled, 304 of whom were convicted for murder and 274 for manslaughter.

During the life of the Prison Commission there have been 354 convicts convicted of murder and 362 convicted of manslaughter to be paroled.

A Girl's Wild Midnight Ride.

To warn people of a fearful forest fire in the Catskills a young girl rode horseback at midnight and saved many lives. Her deed was glorious but lives are often saved by Dr. King's New Discovery in curing lung trouble, coughs and colds, which might have ended in consumption or pneumonia. "It cured me of a dreadful cough and lung disease," writes W. R. Patterson, Wellington, Tex., "after four in our family had died with consumption, and I gained 87 pounds." Uncle Samuel Is After Us.

The Postmaster General has ordered that all subscriptions showing over a year in arrears be paid up or else there will be trouble. The following bulletin has been issued to all newspapers and if you are in arrears kindly call and square up, so we will not have to argue with Uncle Sam, and maybe pay a big fine:

"Sir:—Your attention is called to amended paragraphs 3, section 436, of the Postal laws and Regulations, appearing in the December, 1911, Postal Guide, reading as follows:

"The right of publishers to extend in good faith credit on subscriptions is recognized, and will not be abridged, and although all subscriptions are regarded as expiring with the period of which they were obtained nevertheless, in order to give an opportunity to secure a renewal, copies of their publication will be accepted for mailing as subscribers at the usual second-class rates of postage for a period of one year from the date of expiration; but copies sent to persons after one year from the date of the expiration of their subscriptions, unless such subscriptions are expressly renewed for a definite time, together with an actual payment of subscriptions or a bona-fide promise of payment, will not be accepted at the pound rate, but will be accepted at the transient second-class rate of one cent for each four ounces or fraction thereof, prepaid by stamps affixed.

Respectfully,
JAMES J. BRITT,
Third Assistant Postmaster General."

His Start.

"You got your start in politics by burning midnight oil?" "Yes," replied Senator Sorghum. "I was one of the busiest boys you ever saw in a torchlight procession."

Controversies Must Be Settled Locally.

County School Superintendent, Miss Mabel Robbins is in receipt of the following letter from State Superintendent Barksdale Hamlett, which sets forth that all controversies arising between teachers and trustees of the county schools must fall to the County Superintendent for settlement:

"To Teachers and Trustees:
"The proper medium for the settlement of controversies arising between teachers and trustees is the county superintendent of schools. Many teachers, trustees and citizens have a custom of writing the State Superintendent of Public Instruction about every little detail of school management. I have no objection to answering these inquiries and it is always a pleasure to render assistance to any school. These requests often state only one side of the question and it is impossible to give a fair decision until we have heard both sides. In view of these facts I think it wise and just for all trustees, teachers and citizens to submit these questions first to the county superintendent. When an opinion is needed, the county superintendent is the proper person to ask for an opinion from the State office. When this is done, he can give both sides of the question and the State office can render an intelligent opinion. Strictly speaking, I have no authority to give an opinion, except on an appeal from the decision of the county superintendent or upon his request. I desire to make this appeal to all teachers and trustees, to submit your questions first to the county superintendent, who is the proper person to decide all questions of the difference and doubt regarding the schools of his county."

You very truly
BARKSDALE HAMLETT,
Superintendent."

A Vast Difference.

There is a vast difference between the platforms adopted by the Republicans at Chicago and the Democrats at Baltimore. The Republican platform is thoroughly reactionary and "stand-pat." It does not concede that the last Republican administrations have erred in their tariff policies, notwithstanding the almost universal verdict of the country to the contrary. This platform still prates about "protecting American workers," and "maintaining the American standard of wages," when every citizen with a grain of intelligence knows that both of these are shams and hypocrisies. The Republican platform also is evasive, so that in the remote event of Republican success at the polls, it could be interpreted in any way the high tariff bosses might want it interpreted.

The Democratic platform, on the other hand, is specific and definite. It pledges the party to an exact policy, without any attempt at evasion. It promises, not to "revise the tariff," but to revise the tariff downward. The wording is so plain and definite that a child could understand its meaning and intent. Here, briefly, are some of the important promises in the Democratic document:

1—A tariff for revenue only. Immediate revision downward. Trust controlled products to go on the free list.

2—Civil and criminal prosecution of trusts. Laws to stop monopoly and stock watering. Amendment to make the Sherman law effective.

3—A demand for the ratification of the amendments for an income tax and direct election of Senators.

4—Publicity for all recommendations on which Presidential appointments are made; for the ownership of newspapers; and for all campaign funds in national elections.

5—Presidential primaries and popular election of national committeemen. The use of money by corporations at elections to be made unlawful.

6—A single term for the President.

7—Supervision of railroad, telegraph, telephone and express rates.

8—Revision of the banking laws to prevent concentration and misuse of money. No government deposits in favored banks.

9—Laws to improve the rivers and prevent floods.

10—Restriction of the judiciary to its proper functions.

11—Philippine independence, and territorial government for Alaska. Trial by jury in cases of indirect contempt. Encouragement of the merchant marine, but no subsidies. Parcels post and postal express and extension of rural delivery. Conservation that will not interfere with the rights of bona fide settlers.

12—Extension of the civil service, and no abridgement of the right of Federal employees to petition for redress of grievances.

A WOMAN'S WISDOM.

The worried mother wakes up to hear her baby's heavy breathing—a little cough—perhaps the croup or whooping cough. She does not want to send for the doctor when perhaps the trouble does not amount to much. Finally she thinks of that medical book her father gave her, The Common Sense Medical Adviser, by R. V. Pierce, M. D. She says "the first thing to find out what is the matter with the little dear." Two million households in this country own one—and it's to be had for only 31c. in stamps—1,950 pages in splendid cloth binding. A good family adviser in any emergency. It is for either sex. This is what many women write Dr. Pierce—in respect to his "Favorite Prescription," a remedy which has made thousands of melancholy and miserable women cheerful and happy, by curing the painful womanly diseases which undermine a woman's health and strength.

"My desire is to write a few lines to let you know what your valuable medicine has done for me," writes Mrs. MARGARET ZUBERT, of 323 S. Benton Street, Baltimore, Md. "Before the stork came to our house I was a very sick woman. I wrote you for advice which was kindly given and which made me a different woman in a short time. After taking the first bottle of 'Favorite Prescription' I began improving so that I hardly knew I was in such a condition. I did my own housework—washing and ironing, cooking, sewing, and the worse of all nursed three children who had whooping cough. I hardly knew of the advent ten minutes before—so easy was it. The baby is as fat as a butter-ball. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the best medicine for any woman to take when in this condition. I recommend it to all my friends."

Many Applications In Nest of Owls

Flattering results are being accomplished in organizing the local nest Order of Owls in this city and it is earnestly expected that no less than 300 to 350 members will be hooting at the date the local lodge is to be installed.

SPEED PROGRAM

RUNNING RACES AND HARNESS RACES TO BE GIVEN ON EACH DAY.

Cup Races to be Given Each Day by the Gentlemen's Driving Club at Blue Grass Fair.

An excellent speed program has been arranged for the Blue Grass Fair at Lexington, week of August 12th to 17th.

On each of the six days there will be running races and harness racing on every day but Saturday. The two-year-old stake to be contested during the week, closed with 33 entries including nearly all of the best in training in Kentucky. This race has always been one of the best races of the year for two-year-olds and this should prove no exception to the rule.

In addition there will be a 2:16 trot, a 2:20 pace, 3-year-old trot and 2:22 trot. There will be no deduction from winners except in the stake, the entires to which closed May 10th.

Other features will be added and announced later.

THE PARKER SHOWS

Will Present Several Headline Attractions at Blue Grass Fair.

It is always customary for the larger tentanted enterprises to offer one big feature attraction, sparing neither time or expense to make it the crowning feature of the mighty "Drag." Mr. C. W.
Parker, founder and owner of the Parker Amusement Company, who remains at his big factories at Leavenworth, Kan., and directs his various companies from the home office, conceived the idea that a big European novelty would be the proper attraction for his largest company, The Greater Parker Shows. With this idea in view Miss Essie Fay and her beautiful full blooded Arabian were booked for this season's tour of America.

Miss Fay, who was an English woman by birth, was touring Arabia with her father, who at that time was a member of the English Parliament.
When a guest of the Prince of Morocco at his palace in Tripoli, the Prince was pleased with Miss Fay and presented her with an Arabian yearling.
The young lady shipped the horse to her father's stable. While roving the green with her new pet, she formed an attachment to the colt, and he the same to her, and in his grace and beauty, she thought she saw something promising. With his increasing brains and grace, and the careful training of its mistress, "Arabia" was quick to win acclaims of royalty and nobility in the greatest colseums of Europe.

At London, Paris, Berlin, Naples, Madrid, Moscow, Vienna and St. Petersburg "Arabia," under the directions of Miss Fay, has astonished thousands who have witnessed "Arabia" add and subtract, answer questions,
"yes" or "no" by the nod of her head, use the telephone, and do other astonishing feats, displaying an animal intelligence almost unbelievable of any dumb brute. "Arabia" goes to a big brass bed, takes off his nightcap, undresses, turns down the covers, arranges the pillows, gets into bed, covers himself up again and apparently goes to sleep. Finishing his exhibition with a startling and exciting fire scene. Crushing down his stable door, he dashes across the lawn to the burning building of his mistress, he reappears leaping through the window with an infant child in his mouth and his mistress across his shoulders.
"Arabia" the "fire-fighting" horse and "Arabia" the "good-night" horse will appear in Lexington at the Blue Grass Fair August 7-12.

HALF FARE RATES TO FAIR

Do not fail to visit the Blue Grass Fair at Lexington the week of August 12th to 17th. One fare rates will prevail on all railroads in Kentucky. Every afternoon and evening beginning Sunday, August 11th, there will be magnificent band concerts by Frederick Neil Innes' Orchestral Band, accompanied by Beatrice Van Loon, one of America's younger sopranos, who is recognized as one of the most charming and delightful soloists before the public to-day.

WOMAN'S DEPARTMENT.

The Woman's Department of the Blue Grass Fair, to be held at Lexington, August 12 to 17th, will be more important and extensive this year than ever before. The premium list has been revised, and classes offered cover almost every kind of woman's work and table luxuries. The third floor of the Art Hall is given entirely to this department, and is usually one of the most attractive exhibits of the Big Fair.

This year the second floor will be utilized by the "Made in Lexington Club," and it is needless to say will be made as attractive as possible, and will be an exposition of wares manufactured in Lexington.

On the lower floor the management has arranged with the Canadian Government Exhibit to bring their display of wheat, grain and other agricultural products. This should attract the attention of every farmer in the state, as it is the same display made at big state fairs and expositions.

FIND THREE-TOED HORSE

Scientists Seeking Relics In Nevada
Also Uncover Remains of Prehistoric Camel and Dog.

Reno, Nev.—Marvelous discoveries of prehistoric mammals in the shale fields on the desert 28 miles east of Mina, Nev., are announced as the result of the explorations of Prof. Lawrence Baker of the department of geological research of the University of California. Professor Baker is assisted in his researches by Prof. Buwaldo, also of the university faculty.

The investigations disclose the fact that the region about Mina was once an immense body of tropical water.
The bones of a three-toed horse, about the size of a lamb, have been unearthed.
The teeth, well preserved, and the entire remains of a prehistoric dog have been brought to light. It is believed that this animal lived at least five million or six million years ago.
The scientists say that the fields about Mina are the most marvelous in the world.

Fossils eighteen feet high are to be seen cropping out in the heart of the desert miles away from any human life. In the vicinity is a bed of pure carbonate of magnesia, which assays show runs 97 per cent.

The remains of fish are to be seen sticking out of the banks. The professors are bending their efforts to obtain specimens of mammals. The remains of an extinct camel, dating from the miocene period, have been obtained.

Effort is being made to obtain specimens of the water lizard, believed to be the oldest known form of animal life. Fish many feet in length are to be seen and every indication points to the fact that the remains, so perfectly preserved, belong to a period at least five million years ago. Along the southern edge of the desert, which is believed to have been a lake at one time, there has been discovered coal of a high quality.

An eastern syndicate owns the property upon which the discoveries have been made. They acquired the land to work the magnesia deposits and also to prospect for gold, which is found in nearby sections. Permission was granted the scientists by the local manager to study and take specimens of the relics.

An effort will be made to have the Smithsonian Institution send an expedition to make a thorough study, as it did of the mammoth tracks discovered in the yard of the state penitentiary.

GIRLS TO WEAR BLOOMERS

Playground Instructor Buys 1,600 Yards of Gingham for Pupils to Make Up.

Cleveland.—Miss Marguerite Kelly, supervisor of playgrounds, and Miss Mary Penn, sewing instructor, went on a shopping expedition and bought 1,600 yards of goods.

"Fine troussseau," observed a man, who wandered into a room in the City hall, where Miss Kelly and Miss Penn were busy with scissors, cutting and hacking at great bolts of checkered goods.

"Trousseau nothing," scornfully answered Miss Kelly. "This is gingham; and it's to be made up into bloomers for girls at the playgrounds. There are between 800 and 1,000 girls to be supplied. We decided to have them make bloomers instead of weaving mats and baskets. They can't wear baskets and mats."

"But why the bloomers?"

"Well," said Miss Kelly. "They won't wear certain articles of lingerie in hot weather. That's the reason, if you must know."

Look at New York City and Call It Devoid of Beauty—Its Women Blase.

New York—Nine Oregon girls who reached New York from Portland after having motored about the city a few hours declared that so far as they could see New York was devoid of beauty. They are farmers' daughters who earned the trip by getting subscriptions for a newspaper. After two days in New York they went to Washington to meet the president, and finally to Chicago for the Republican convention.

"Eastern women," said Mrs. M. A.
Hartshorn, a newspaper woman who is chaperon of the party, "are made up too much to look pretty. Even the young girls look blase. Their faces are absolutely devoid of expression and they cannot be compared with our girls with their natural vivacity.
And as for your men, they all look so delicate. Their waist lines are even smaller than the girls'. They are not like our men, big and lovable."

Kisses Break Up Church Play.

Chicago. When Miss Anita Cluschow found that she was to be the recipient of many kisses in a play given by the young women of the Ascension Roman Catholic church, in which she was to take a leading part, she refused to go on with rehearsals until the kissing scenes were cut out. Now, unless a woman can be found who does not object to being kissed on the stage, the play will be called off.

Punctuality Costs Her Life.

New York.—Jumping into a rapidly rising elevator, in order to get to her desk on time, Miss Mary Foreth, a cashier, fell forward, her body being caught and crushed beneath the edge of the floor and the top of the elevator door. When the operator reversed the lever the lifeless body crashed 25 feet to the basement.

Indian Loses His Second Game.

Charley Boniash lost his second game since becoming a Bourbonton when on yesterday afternoon Paris was defeated by the Pioneers by a score of 3 to 1. The contest was a fierce struggle against the almost invincible Black, who accomplished his eighth consecutive victory by winning yesterday.

Boniash showed marked improvement in his pitching since his first game against the Lawmakers last week and but for the lack of control in the opening session there might have been a different story to relate. The fact that the game was lost is no discredit to the ability of the Indian, who after the first frame made a startling display of class.

The loss of the game was entirely due to the inability of the locals to connect with Black and on several occasions, hits which would have counted runs were not forthcoming. With the exception of one inning the local played brilliantly behind Boniash, who kept his hits well scattered until the ninth when three were registered against him but a neat double retired the side without a run.

The game was replete with fast fielding plays and a total of four doubles went down on the records, two to each side.

The visitors counted two runs in the first when Murry walked, was advanced by Baird and scored on Munn's double. Munn scored on Lake's drive to center. Two errors in the fourth coupled with two hits gave the visitors their last run.

Paris counted their only run in the third. Harrell was safe on O'Connell's error, went to third on Goodman's sacrifice and scored when Mullenkamp singled to right.

Paris will go to Mt. Sterling today for two games with the Orphans and will be at home the remainder of the week with Maysville.

Paris dropped a couple of games to the Lawmakers Friday afternoon at White Park, the first game being won by the close score of 5 to 4 and the latter, an air-tight affair, was won by a score of 3 to 0.

In the first game Boniash, the Chipewa Indian pitcher, officiated, and on this occasion was very creditable, and pleasing to the fans. Applegate was on the mound in the second game, but showed poor form, while Weitzel allowed the locals but three hits.

Saturday afternoon, for the second time in three days, Jimmy Hauser pitched to victory the local team over the Lawmakers, by a score of 5 to 2. Cornell was very effective in the early stages, but his curves soon came to the liking of the Bourbontons, who wasted few of their safe drives, practically all of their hits counting for runs. After the fifth inning Hauser held the visitors without another score.

The game Sunday afternoon between Paris and the Colts, in Lexington, was won by the latter, the score being 13 to 5. Harold essayed to pitch for Paris, but was taken out in the seventh inning. Ludwig was sent to the mound, and his wildness in the two last frames gave the Colts the game by a large margin.

Mr. Coons was stricken with this disease several years ago and went West, hoping to be benefited, but returned home, where he has made a brave fight for life, and did not give up until a few weeks ago.

He was an orphan and made his home with his aunts, Miss Nannie and Maggie Keller. He is survived by one brother, Mr. James Coons, who is baggagemaster at the Louisville and Nashville passenger depot.

Mr. Coons held the position of manager of the Postal Telegraph Company's office until forced by declining health to abandon his work.

The funeral was held at the Catholic Church yesterday morning at 9 o'clock. Services were conducted by Rev. F. O'Dwyer. Burial in the Catholic cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. T. F. Roche, Harry Kerslake, Joseph Varden, John McCarthy, George Browner and John McDermott.

Mr. Kuster had been ill for several weeks with typhoid fever. He is survived by his parents, two brothers, Messrs. Dewey and Theodore Kuster, and five sisters, Misses Mintie, Amelia, Mary and Lydia Kuster, all of Bourbon county. The funeral services were held at the Mt. Carmel church, Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock, by Elder B. C. Dewey, of Lexington, and Elder J. R. Jones, of Cynthiana. Burial took place in the Paris cemetery. The pall-bearers were: John R. Ewalt, Samuel Arnold, Bailey Faulkner, Mike T. David, John Rankin and Richard Biddle.

Mrs. Baker has been a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Meade for several weeks, while her husband is in Hot Springs for the benefit of his health. The funeral will be held at the grave in the Paris cemetery this afternoon, conducted by Rev. W. E. Ellis, of the Christian church.

BROOMHALL.

Mr. A. R. Broomhall died suddenly Friday morning about 6:30 o'clock, at his residence on Houston avenue. For some months Mr. Broomhall had been suffering from inflammatory rheumatism, but the immediate cause of his death was endocarditis. Mr. Broomhall, who was aged about 42 years, has for some time been a sufferer from rheumatism and only recently returned from Hot Springs, Ark., with the hope of securing relief. While there he consulted a physician who advised that his condition was more serious than was first anticipated as the disease had been allowed to run too long without treatment.

Since his return home he has been confined to his home. Until a few months ago he was a valued employee of the firm of Lowry & Talbott. Several times he has been able to go to the store, but was unable to resume his duties. He was an expert timer and furnace man and had been in the employ of the firm for fifteen years.

He is survived by his wife and two sons, Frank, aged fifteen, and Ralph, aged ten years. Brief funeral services were held at the residence Friday evening at seven o'clock, conducted by Rev. E. M. Lightfoot, of the Baptist church, and the body was taken Saturday morning on the 5:30 train to Mt. Orat, Brown county, Ohio, his former home, for burial. The body was accompanied by Mrs. Broomhall, her mother, Mrs. Altman, his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Walker, and two sons.

Fiscal Court Favors Tractor Trailers.

With a view of establishing an economical system of road building to improve the condition of the roads of Bourbon county at a cost much less than that which is required by bids, the Bourbon Fiscal Court at a special meeting held Friday discussed the question of buying road machinery with which the county will build its own turnpikes.

At the meeting Squires J. J. Redmon, J. N. Shropshire and E. P. Thomason, who were appointed a committee to investigate the workings of road building machinery, and who recently returned from a trip of inspection to Columbus, O., made their report, which was to the effect that the committee was greatly impressed with the iron wagon trailer system for hauling rock, and while no decision was reached it is probable the report of the committee will be accepted and in the future the court will ask for bids upon twelve wagons and a traction engine.

It is said the system saves about one-third in hauling, as one of the iron wagons will hold as much as three or four two-horse wagons of the ordinary type. The system as it is employed effectively in other places, is to have six wagons at the rock crusher being loaded, while the traction engine makes a trip with the remainder and upon its return the other six are loaded. By this method of operation it is claimed a rock crusher is never delayed by the absence of wagons and the vehicles are easily unloaded.

Bourbon county already owns a number of good rock quarries while many others have been opened on leased ground at an annual rental. It has been suggested that the county buy ground for rock quarries in different sections of the county and at points that could be worked to advantage.

Have you treated for months and years, and been disappointed until you think that you can not be cured? You, no doubt, all this time have been treated by inexperienced doctors who had neither sufficient knowledge nor experience to know how to cure you.

These are the diseases of which I am so proud.

Blood Diseases, Skin Diseases
I will give you treatment that will in a few days get all the rashes, spots and every sign and symptom. My treatment will put you out of the system instead of driving it in like ordinary treatments. I cure blood diseases and skin disease so they cannot come back.

Varicose, causing aching or pain in groin or back, Nervousness, Weakness, Loss of Vitality, Lack of Ambition—

One-treatment care is what you should have and what you will have to be cured right. Only one visit is required. I do no cutting and you suffer no pain nor trouble. All signs disappear in a few days.

Nervous Troubles, Lost Vitality
My combined treatment for nervous troubles and symptoms that you have become weak and worn out, who have caused it by folly, dissipation and excesses, is remarkably good. No one believes how quickly it benefits until they have taken it.

It overcomes weakness, nervousness, pain in back of neck, indigestion and strength—it's just the treatment I have effective in treating such diseases.

Kidney and Bladder Troubles are scientifically cured by me. My methods immediately benefit you, and the majority of cases I cure from physicians and specialists who failed.

Piles, Fistulae—
I can cure you so quickly and easily that you will be surprised. I will give you just the result and cure you are looking for without a surgical operation.

Mrs. Nellie Brewster Arrests Runaway and Brings His Waitress Friend to Prison So She Can See Him Incarcerated.

Portland, Ore.—"Here's a man for whom for two weeks you've had a warrant for non-support. Put him in jail," commanded Mrs. Nellie Brewster, marching into the sheriff's office with her husband, Ben Brewster, in tow. "I found him mighty quick when I made up my mind to go after him myself."

Brewster was taken to the seventh floor of the courthouse and locked up.
As soon as she had satisfied herself that he was safely incarcerated Mrs.
Brewster turned on her heel and walked down town again. She went directly to a restaurant in which is employed the young woman she charges with having stolen her husband's affections.

"Put on your hat and come with me. I want to show you where I put your sweetheart," the wife ordered.

The waitress protested, but all in vain. Mrs. Brewster threatened to make a scene in the establishment and the waitress, fearful of losing her job, went along. Up to the courthouse they traveled and straight to the seventh floor.

"Look at him. He's there in jail.
I just brought you up so that you would know first hand where he was and not miss him tonight," Mrs.
Brewster flung in the teeth of her rival. "He's ruined my life, but he is the father of my two babies. You say he has ruined your life. All right, you may be fooling me, but I'll take your word for it. You may go."

Mrs. Brewster refused the request of the waitress to be allowed to speak to the man in the case. She escorted her husband's waitress friend to the door of the courthouse, where they took office.

"On the way up from the room where I found them together 'Ben' was smoking a cigarette," said Mrs.
Brewster in county court when her husband was before Judge Cleeton.
"I ordered him to throw it away, and he did it after I had told him that he was breaking the hearts of his father and mother and that he had no respect for them or for me. I said: 'Ben, maybe this will be the last two blocks you will ever walk with me in your life, but you're going to respect me for as long as it takes us to walk it. Throw that cigarette away!'"

Judge Cleeton postponed the hearing after informing Brewster that he would require him to put up a bond of $500 to guarantee the payment of eight dollars a week to his wife and babies, the younger of whom is just four months old.

"You may go back to your mother at Umatilla. There is no necessity of your staying and adding to your expense. Your husband has practically pledged guilty," the judge said to Mrs. Brewster.

"No, sir; I am going to stay here and see this thing through. I want to make sure that it is done right. I want to teach him a lesson that he'll remember for the rest of his life. I promised his mother that I would always do my best to keep him straight," returned the woman.

"Get a divorce from him? And give him a chance to marry that other girl and probably go to the devil entirely?
I should say not," Mrs. Brewster said in answer to a question.

"He can't get a divorce from me, and I won't give him the satisfaction of getting one from him. Besides, I do not believe in divorce."

"JOKE" WAS ALMOST FATAL

Man Telephoned to Mother of Brother's Arrest for Murder and She Swooned.

Atlantic City, N. J.—As the result of a practical joke played over the telephone by her son, Mrs. Yetta Nathanson, 228 North Connecticut Avenue, fell unconscious. Medical attention was hurriedly procured, as she was at first thought to be dying from heart failure, but she was revived.

Mr. Nathanson called up her son, John J. Nathanson, a merchant, to ask the cause of the delay of his younger brother, employed by him as a driver, in arriving home. Nathanson saw an opportunity of perpetrating a "joke" upon his mother, and proceeded to tell her that the young man had murdered a man and was arrested, but was interrupted in his blood-curdling tale by a choking sound, followed by the crash of his mother's body as she fell unconscious.

The fall was also heard by inmates of Mrs. Nathanson's home and they rushed to her aid.

"Pepper" Caught by Girl.

De Beque, Colo.—Pearl Hoppel, 18 years old, is a heroine of De Beque as the result of her single handed capture of Frank E. Lynch, a hobo whom she found peeping in her bedroom window recently. Miss Hoppel was about to dispose when she caught a glimpse of a face at the window.

She coolly stepped into the next room, secured her father's revolver, and went out the back door. Going around the house, she found the tramp still on his knees under the window.

She compelled him to rise, and, covering him with the revolver, marched him to the residence of City Marshal Mason, who placed him in jail.

GOVERNMENT WILL PROBABLY
NOW GIVE KENTUCKY
HER QUOTA.

New Game Law Will Give Protection
Required and Three Trains Are Expected.

Frankfort.—The first benefit of the new fish and game law is expected to be the restocking of Kentucky streams with fish by the government. Executive Agent J. Quincy Ward and W. W.
Longmoor are in correspondence with people along all the streams in the state, collecting information as to just what kind of fish is wanted in each section. The government has never heretofore given Kentucky her quota of fish, because there was no protection for them; but the commission hopes to have three trains of fish early in the fall for distribution.

When the game warden is chosen the merit system will be applied, and a half dozen or so will be retained on the staff to be sent wherever there is a particular need of special service.
These men will receive expenses and extra compensation, and will be chosen from among those who display especial aptitude for the work.

Studying the Work.

State Banking Commissioner Thos.
J. Smith is determined to start his new department with a degree of efficiency that will be effective in accomplishing the purposes of the state under which it was created.
All his forces are experienced in the banking business, having had at least four years' experience, and he has obtained the consent of the Comptroller of the Currency for his examiners to accompany a national bank examiner to familiarize themselves with filed work before beginning active operations. In the meantime the necessary blanks are being secured and the office force is organizing for its work.

Commissioner Smith attended a meeting of the national examiners of Kentucky, Indiana and Ohio at Louisville at the invitation of Percy H.
Johnston, head of the department in these three states, and heard problems of the work discussed by experienced men. It was through Mr. Johnson that Commissioner Smith secured permission for his examiners to watch the work of the national field force.

New Game Law Effective.

What might well be termed a Bertilton system, without the measurements of the head and arms, became effective in Kentucky, when the new hunter's license law went into effect.
To get a license, the would-be hunter must give his age, height, weight and the color of his hair and then he must pay $1 for a slip of paper showing that he has the right to hunt in the state. The first license was issued to Joseph G. Sachs, president of the Kentucky Fish and Game Club. He beat Emil Pragoff, treasurer of the club, by a nose, getting his application in to the State Game Warden a short time ahead of the treasurer.

The new law requires every hunter who wanders afield to have a license, and attaches a penalty of $50 for the transient of it. The money accumulates in this way is to be spent in the propagation of fish and the protection of game of all kinds. The license must always be with the hunter who owns it.

Telephone Merger.

The Christian-Todd Telephone company, which was incorporated with $1,000,000 capital stock, held its annual election of officers, as follows: President, R. E. Cooper; D. Gordon Edwards, general manager; Frank G. Hoge, secretary. Immediately following the election announcement was made that the new company would take over the properties of both the Cumberland Telephone & Telegraph company and the Home Telephone company. Physical connection between the two plants will be made and they will be run as one system. The company will begin business with 5,000 telephones in the counties of Christian and Todd. The organization is said to be the beginning of a big merger of telephone systems in that section. The incorporators of the new million-dollar concern are J. M. Holley and R. E. Hastings, of Atlanta, Ga.; R. E. Cooper and F. G. Hoge, of Hopkinsville;
B. B. Petrie, of Elkhorn, and J. B. Hoge, of Cleveland.

New Military Company.

A new company of the National Guard has been authorized at Carrollton by Col. Tandy Ellis, acting adjutant general. It will be mustered in as soon as the membership is complete.
Maj. Woodard has gone to Anniston, Ala., to look after arrangements for the reception of Kentucky troops at the maneuver camp and to let the contract for horses. He will return and go down with the troops July 25.

Getting Ready for Maneuvers.

Plans for the movement of the entire brigade, Kentucky National Guard, to the training camp near Anniston, Ala., July 25, are rapidly being matured by the force under Col. J. Tandy Ellis, Acting Adjutant General. With the Kentucky brigade will be encamped the Fifth Alabama, the Second South Carolina, the Seventeenth U. S. Infantry from Ft. Mc-Pherson and the Eleventh U. S. Cavalry from Ft. Aglethorpe. Gen. Watherstone, U. S. A., will be in command of the training camp.

Must Settle School Squabbles.

The Department of Education at Frankfort, which has been overwhelmed with communications regarding every little school squabble in the state, has sent out a circular letter to teachers informing them that hereafter the county superintendents will be expected to handle local questions of that character. When the county superintendent has heard both sides of the question he or she may submit it to the State Superintendent of Public Instruction at Frankfort. In one day the department received as high as 100 communications from parents, teachers and trustees in regard to squabbles in school districts. Nearly all of them give just one side of the issue, and Superintendent Hamlett is unable to make a fair decision without hearing both sides.

Folly of Pride in Gold.

He that is proud of riches is a fool.
For if he be exalted above his neighbors because he hath more gold, how much inferior is he to a gold mine!—

Labor Still Supreme.

Science has accomplished a lot of new things with water power and air power, but hasn't improved on man power. Nothing so far, in the history of humanity, has been discovered as an acceptable substitute for honest, steady labor.—Herbert Kaufman.

The redskins now living in the United States number 265,683, as against the 273,196 of a decade ago. The director of the census reports that 56.5 per cent. of them are full-blooded Indians.
There are at least three hundred thousand Indians in North America, and their number increasing; they are not vanishing. Indeed ethnological experts say that the continent harbors perhaps more aborigines than in the days before the white man came. In the hunting stage of civilization the land could not support many Indians.

Bad Spells

"I suffered, during girlhood, from womanly weakness," writes Mrs. Mollie Navy, of Walnut, N. C. "At last, I was almost bed-ridden, and had to give up. We had three doctors. All the time, I was getting worse. I had bad spells, that lasted from 7 to 28 days. In one week, after I gave Cardui a trial, I could eat, sleep, and joke, as well as anybody. In 8 weeks, I was well. I had been an invalid for 5 weary years! Cardui relieved me, when everything else failed."

STOCK, CROP AND FARM NOTES.

Frank Bury, of near Centerville, sold to Harp Bros., of Georgetown, 80 head of lambs, at 7 cents.

Nicholas county hens are on a strike, and eggs are reported scarcer than at any time since the scarcity last winter.

Harrison county is to have another loose leaf tobacco market, making three that will be in operation when the tobacco market opens next fall.

Hon. Cassius M. Clay, of near Paris, sold this week to Joseph Frakes two hundred lambs at 7 cents. The lambs were shipped to Jersey City, Thursday evening.

Farmers of near Licking, Nicholas county, are this year raising over 100 acres of tomatoes. One cannery is already established and another is being built. Plans are made for the canning of thousands of cans of tomatoes.

In the face of the efforts of Col. G. R. Keller to exterminate the pests rats are said to be slaying chickens in Carlisle, and other sections of Nicholas county. Hundreds of chickens have been reported killed in one night. A special rat killing day will probably be celebrated there soon.

Surpassing all previous efforts in egg raising in the East, G. W. Sanders, of Newton, N. J., holds as the record an egg measuring 9.5 by 7.5 inches, which was laid by one of his white Leghorns this week. It had a soft shell and was put in alcohol for exhibition.

W. P. Givens, one of the pioneer alfalfa growers of Lincoln county, will put in 20 additional acres this season on his farm near Shelby City. Mr. Givens estimates that his three-acre crop of alfalfa paid him $180 an acre last year, he having cut his little patch five times during the season.

An unusually large tobacco crop will be raised in Boyle county this year. The acreage is somewhat larger than last year, and it is estimated that about 1,200 acres will be raised. In addition to the two warehouses now in operation another will be erected this summer.

A number of Boyle county farmers are threshing their wheat crops this week. They were delayed some time by the wet weather, but atmospheric conditions have materially improved in the past few days. The yield is about normal and the quality of the grain is very good. A number of sales at a dollar a bushel have been made.

Danville Advocate: "Mr. Monte Fox shipped his big bunch of export cattle to New York on Saturday. There were 360 in the drove, and it required a special train of twenty cars to haul them. Mr. Fox has been making up the shipment for some time. He paid from seven to eight cents for the stock."

Throughout Central Kentucky business men and bankers are enjoying a season of activity with better conditions to follow as the result of propitious crop conditions and high values for fattened live stock. The farmer is master of the situation and is adding daily to his bank account as proceeds from the sale of crops, country produce and live stock are received.

A. R. Robertson, a tobacco man of Mt. Sterling, is rehandling and pricing tobacco he bought last winter. Tobacco men in Montgomery take a bright view of the situation regarding the merger of the Lexington houses, and believe that the sale to the Louisville people will work an excellent advantage. They look at it that the move was made to hurt the growers.

The Farmers' Union Mercantile Company, a corporation recently organized in Carlisle by the Nicholas County Farmers' Union, will open a store in that city August 1. The business will be located in the McNew building. R. H. Briefly, of East Union, is president, and Geo. M. Wilson, of Carlisle, secretary and treasurer of the company. The county union has about 1,200 members.

The tomato growing industry is becoming more extensive in Nicholas county. Farmers of the northern portion of the county are growing a large acreage of this crop this year. The cannery of J. F. Standiford & Co., near Abner's Mill, is preparing for an output of 31,000 cans this season, and the Standiford farm is growing thirty acres of tomatoes.

The plentiful harvests of important crops of the country, indicated by the July crop report of the Department of Agriculture, will extend also to the minor crops to a great extent.

Conditions of all crops were materially better on July 1 than on the same date last year. The crop reporting board estimates they are 5.9 per cent. better. Comparing their condition with the average of recent years, it is somewhat lower, about 1.2 per cent.

The area planted to the important crops—corn, wheat, oats, barley, potatoes, tobacco, flax, rice and cotton—is estimated at fully 241,155,000 acres. While this aggregate area is 1.8 less than the area of the same crops last year, it is 1.9 per cent. greater than in 1910, and 6.9 per cent. greater than in 1909.

Taken as a whole, the report of the crop conditions in Kentucky, made by Commissioner of Agriculture Newman, shows that the conditions for July are much brighter than were the indications for June. The report shows the condition of corn to be 84 1-2 per cent. of an average crop; oats, 92 1-2 per cent. of an average crop; wheat 92 1-2 per cent. The estimated yield per acre of wheat is 10.2-10 bushels; that of rye is 12 1-2 bushels, and while but little barley is grown in Kentucky, it shows an average yield of about 26 2-10 bushels to the acre. Last month the reports were 91 per cent. of dark tobacco transplanted on June 1, and the present condition of same is reported as being about 90 per cent. While the burley section transplanted only 51 per cent. of its crop, its condition is about 86 per cent. The average of the fruit crop is summed up as follows: Apples, 75 per cent.; peaches, 70 per cent.; pears, 70 per cent.; plums, 89 1-2 per cent.; grapes, 91 per cent.

FLANDERS
VENTURE

Your Dollar Buys More

When you buy a Studebaker-E-M-F "30" or Studebaker-Flanders "20" you get more for your money, dollar for dollar, than in any other car built.

There may be other good cars—but what is their price? That's the rub. If they really are good cars, they necessarily cost more because comparatively few are built. Some poor cars, you know, are high priced too, so that the dealer can fool you by cutting the price. What a car is really worth, not what it costs, should be your standard.

The Studebaker Corporation has the largest and best automobile factories in the world. We could build and sell any competing car today for less money than its present price. In your Studebaker-E-M-F "30" or Flanders "20" you get full value, because the biggest factories and the best brains in the industry build these cars.

Mr. E. P. Clarke, aged 73, died at his home in Millersburg, after a long and painful illness, at 6 o'clock, Saturday morning. Mr. Clarke has been a sufferer from tuberculosis and other complications for the past two years. He was a man of strong constitution, and fought every inch of the road to death. Ever since his retirement from the office of Sheriff in January, 1910, he has been practically an invalid, though able to conduct business actively until last December, when with his wife he went to Florida, hoping that the atmosphere of the Southern climate might give to him the long-needed relief. This, however, did not come, and he returned in May in a worse condition physically than when he left home, and since that time has been confined to his bed almost continuously.

He belongs to one of the stalwart and sturdy families of Kentucky, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Clarke, of Fleming county, and one of several children, two of whom survive. One brother, Mr. J. S. Clarke, of Millersburg, and one sister, Mrs. Robinson, of Missouri, also survive. When quite young his father moved to Mason county, and Mr. Clarke showed the sturdy qualities which have since characterized him as a high type of a gentleman, loyal citizen and business man, when he identified himself with the "lost cause", and became a Confederate soldier.

He was under Col. Breckinridge, in the Ninth Kentucky Cavalry, and for four years suffered with his comrades all the privations of war. When this bitter struggle had ended he returned home.

All during his life he has been a devout Christian, a member of the Baptist church, and a great part of the time an officer in this religious body. After the war he began life as a young farmer near Mayslick, and soon afterward was united in marriage to Miss Elizabeth Ball, at Sardis. This married life was a long, happy one, and they are the parents of five children, all of whom survive, two daughters, Mrs. W. G. Leer, of Millersburg, and Mrs. Robert Boone, of Texas; three sons, J. S. Clarke, of Lexington, and Lacey Clarke, of Millersburg.

In 1880 he purchased a farm near Millersburg, which is now owned by Mr. W. M. Layson, moved to it, occupying it for a number of years, and during the time was identified with a number of other pursuits. He soon became a member of the firm of Ball, Thompson & Co., dealers in leaf tobacco, and in this was successful.

Later with Mr. M. H. Current as partner he purchased the business of Mr. Jas. M. Collier, and it was while connected with this firm he secured a position as traveling solicitor for the Cincinnati Leaf Tobacco Warehouse.

Mr. Clarke traveled throughout Central and Northern Kentucky and Southern Ohio, and brought more business to his company than any other man either prior to or since his time. This he continued until he was elected deputy sheriff in 1901. The business firm of Current & Clarke was afterward changed to Clarke & Wilcox, they after a time disposing of the business to Stewart & Collier.

Mr. Clarke, being one of the best-known men of Bourbon county, as well as one of the most popular, has often been solicited to run for office, and many times declined. It was not until 1901 that, through the solicitation of his friends he was finally prevailed upon to run on the ticket with Mr. W. W. Mitchell, of Paris, as deputy sheriff. It was a memorable campaign, and these gentlemen came out with flying colors. In 1905 Mr. Clarke went to the head of the ticket, and again another memorable campaign was fought, with equally good results. He made one of the best officers the county ever had, and he lived to hear his praises sung in one grand chorus made up of many voices in all parts of the country.

Rather early in life Mr. Clarke identified himself with the Masonic fraternity and was a member of Amity Lodge No. 40 at the time of his death. After disposing of his farm near town he moved to Millersburg and was successful in a number of real estate deals. He first occupied a home belonging to the firm of Current & Clarke and later purchased the property now occupied by Mr. U. S. G. Pepper. During the panic of 1893-1896 he purchased the property now owned and occupied by Mr. O. M. Johnson and family, occupying the same until he moved to Paris in 1902. He said that at the expiration of his term of office he would return to Millersburg, the place that he loved so much. This he made good in 1910, and for one year occupied the property vacated by Mr. J. V. Rogers. At the expiration of that time the home of the late W. M. Hamilton was purchased by him. In the time he has owned it he made many improvements, and it is one of the coziest little homes in Millersburg.

Mr. Clarke was a man whom to meet was to admire, whom to know was to love. He was true to a fault and it was this, coupled with many other virtues, that won and held for him a high place in the hearts and esteem of all good people. The funeral, which was one of the largest, and in every respect one of the most impressive, took place Monday afternoon at 3:30 at the Methodist church, Rev. Geo. W. Clarke, of Tennessee, officiating, assisted by Dr. C. C. Fisher, of Millersburg. The floral tributes were numerous and handsome. Relatives and friends, Confederate soldiers and Masons were here from many places. The Baptist church was entirely inadequate for the occasion. The services at the grave were under the auspices of Amity Lodge No. 40, F. & A. M., and were conducted by O. R. Rankin. They were impressive and will linger in the minds of all present.

The honorary pall-bearers were all Confederate soldiers, while the active pall-bearers were the following: A. S. Thompson, Pearce Paton, George Batterton, J. F. McDaniel, O. R. Rankin and Wm. Wright.

Mr. J. J. Peed and sister, Mrs. Molie Slack, the latter of Sharpsburg, were in Mayslick Saturday.

Born, Saturday morning to the wife of Mr. W. D. McIntyre a daughter, Martha Elizabeth. Second born.

Mr. Albert Hinton of Paris and Mrs. Robert Yancey, of Mayslick, were guests of Mr. J. J. Peed and family Friday.

Misses Blanche Lilleston, of Paris, and Mason Talbott, of North Middlebury, were guests of the Misses Pur nell Friday and Saturday.

Messrs W. J. Curtis and J. M. Thompson, of Mt. Olivet, were in town Thursday in the interest of the Robertson Co. Christian Assembly, which convened in August.

Mrs. J. H. Linville sustained a fall last Wednesday, badly spraining one knee. Master Harris Tackett was accidentally struck in the head last Thursday, inflicting a painful though not dangerous wound.

Mrs. Mollie Slack and niece, Miss Jessie Bascom, of Sharpsburg, who have been the guests of Mr. J. J. Peed and family for several days, left Monday for a visit to William Peed and family in Lexington.

Mr. G. L. Hill, while at work at Little Rock on Thursday, accidentally stepped on a nail, running it through his foot, inflicting a serious wound and had it not been for the timely attention of a physician it might have proven serious. He will probably be confined to his home for the next two weeks. Mr. Hill is tinner and plumber for Miller & Best.

Mr. Edgar Collins, local manager of the Bourbon Home Telephone Company, while driving from the blacksmith shop of Mr. J. C. Fightmaster to the stable of Turner & McIntyre, came near meeting with a serious accident. Just after leaving the shop his horse became unmanageable and one rein broke. In turning the corner at the home of Mrs. Bessie Johnson Mr. Collins leaped from the rear of the wagon just as it struck an electric light pole, badly demolishing the wagon. Mr. Collins escaped unhurt.

Mr. Clarke traveled throughout Central and Northern Kentucky and Southern Ohio, and brought more business to his company than any other man either prior to or since his time. This he continued until he was elected deputy sheriff in 1901. The business firm of Current & Clarke was afterward changed to Clarke & Wilcox, they after a time disposing of the business to Stewart & Collier.

Negro Drowned in Pond.

James Marshall, colored, of Center ville, aged about 52 years, was drowned in a pond on the farm of Mr. Joe Wilson, near Centerville, Sunday afternoon about 10 o'clock. Marshall, in company with several negroes, started from his home Sunday about noon. The party came to the pond on the farm of Mr. Wilson and Marshall, who was considered a good swimmer, against the wishes of his companions, leaped in the body of water and swam across. The pond is very deep. After resting on the opposite bank for some time the negro plunged into the water and started back across. When within a short distance of the shore it is supposed he was seized with cramps and without uttering a sound, sank in full view of those who were on the bank and among whom was one of his sons.

After dragging the pond for about an hour the body was recovered in about thirty feet of water a short distance from the place where his companion had last seen him. Coroner Rudolph Davis was notified and after conducting an investigation pronounced his death due to accidental drowning.

In Mt. Sterling, Too?

Dr. E. A. Brown, a physician of Galion, O., who was arrested in Lexington charged with passing worthless checks in that city, was in Mt. Sterling a few days ago. He claimed to purchase horses, and in company with Mr. Wick Bush, a liveryman, went to Sherburne, Bath county, and bought a horse from a party there, also one from Bush, giving checks, which were discovered to be worthless. Bush said the man seemed to be a man of means, and asked him to look around for a nice home in the city for him and to locate a fine farm near the city for him.

Brown is the same man who worked the cold check game here several weeks ago and previous to his capture in Lexington. From all accounts he played the game in practically every town in Central Kentucky.

What a Conscience!

McNamara Gets Five Years.

The jury in the case of John H. (King) McNamara, at Lexington, Friday afternoon, returned a verdict of five years in the penitentiary for the slaying of Jacob S. Keller thirteen years ago. The action of the jury in fixing the term of punishment was authorized under the law in effect at the time the crime was committed, the court having in an additional instruction directed that the jury should follow the old law.

The final agreement of the jury was reached by a compromise. It is understood that on the first ballot the jurors stood two for murder in the first degree, two for acquittal and eight for manslaughter, the latter eight being for terms of imprisonment of from one to twenty-one years, with a majority in favor of from one to twelve years. The jury brought in its verdict about 4:30 o'clock after having the case under consideration since 5:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon, a period of nearly twenty-four hours.

Members of the jury, however, stated that the actual deliberations on the case consumed about ten hours. It is said that the defendant will not take an appeal.
